

EXODUS MAILBAG #18

Those who know your name will trust in you, for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Psalm 9:10

Charles Brown in LA On January 11 2021 I hit rock bottom by being arrested. I met Christians along the way and started studying His Word and praying. Something kept nagging at me saying, are you really saved? This went on from the time I was arrested until January 2023 when I asked God to come into my life. I felt a big burden was lifted off my shoulders. I have met some great Christian brothers in prison. I am very thankful for their support. Without God and my Christian brothers I would not have made it. After going through this I realized I wasn't arrested. I was rescued and give all thanks to God.

Chad Ray Hovet in CO On October 10, 2028, I was arrested for 6 bank robberies. After an entire day of interrogation and humiliation, I arrived into county jail. I knew my life was destroyed. I lay on a cold, hard bunk and began to sob. As tears came, I began to pray telling God my sins and asking for His love to come back to me. For the first time in my life, I heard a voice not my own telling me to "Fear not my son." I slept the hardest I had in years. On October 20 2018 from a county jail bunk, all by myself God proved to me He loved me and offered me salvation which I accepted and never looked back.

O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you.

Psalm 63:1

Keri Winters in AZ I enjoyed this lesson very much. I like how when Scripture is given then the paragraph following helps break it down in words that make it easier to understand. I always pray for help from the Holy Spirit and can usually grasp what is being said, but this helps to clarify. Thank you for all you do. I appreciate you.

D.S. in MO

Jesus is the Savior, made flesh and blood as man.
He was put on Earth to do what no other can.
He taught of salvation and forgiveness of sin.
As long as you believe and put your faith in Him.
He'll lead you to heaven as He saves your soul.
Takes the wretched, broken man and makes him whole.

Everything He did on Earth, He did it for you,
So that you could be washed clean and made new.
He'll come ack in the future to call His chosen home.

Make sure you're one of them and not left alone.

For we are to God an aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing.

2 Corinthians. 2:15

Diana Martinez in AL Prayers for M.Z who has several medical issues and is visually impaired. She is an inmate here. She needs a cane or a walker as she is totally dependent on others to get around. I assist her in all she does. I am also wanting prayer so I may get moved in with her so I can better assist her.

Terry Gilmore in TX Thank you, Exodus Prison Ministry! Each lesson I learn so much and I can't wait for the opportunity to share what I have learned with someone else. It never fails after I complete the entire lesson that a situation comes up where I can apply what I have learned to help someone. Throughout every walk of life I find instruction in the written Word of God.

Joshua Aragon in CO I love your studies! I love our God. All I know is He very well could have changed the outcome of my sentencing at His will. The Lord is perfect! If I wasn't supposed to get 6 years DOC, I wouldn't have. I got exactly what I was supposed to get. I have to stand on that. God has a wonderful plan for my life. I'm learning to live for His glory above all. I will be in DOC when you get this. Send my studies there.
